The squad has as yet not really had any practice, though an attempt is being made to arrange the school work of the several players so that more time can be devoted to it. Georgetown will also get a lot of good work out of the meetings. The Blue good work out of the meetings. The Blue and Gray team has not been against any aggregation yet, except its own scrubs, which, at best, is not worth as much as working with an eleven unfamiliar with the plays and signals. The Hilltoppers are to meet the Navy next week, and in practicing against the suburban eleven they have their only chance to get a real test of strength, that is, providing the Aggies prove strong enough for that.
